Test 11

Those Two Boys

When Bill was a lad he was terribly bad.
He worried his parents a lot.
He'd lie and he'd swear and pull little girls' hair.
His boyhood was naught but a blot.

At play and in school he would fracture each rule
in mischief from autumn to spring;
And the villagers knew when to manhood he grew.
He would never amount to a thing.

When Jim was a child he was not very wild;
He was known as a good little boy;
He was honest and bright and the teacher's delight.
To his mother and father a joy

All the neighbours were sure that his virtue'd endure
That his life would be free of a spot,
They were certain that Jim had a great head on him.
And that Jim would amount to a lot.

And Jim grew to manhood and honor and fame.
And bears a good name;
While Bill is shut up in a dark prison cell
You never can tell
