One day I went to see my grandmother. Her house is about 500 metres away from my place. While I was walking along the road, I heard a vehicle coming. Within no time it reached me and stopped. I saw several middle-aged people in the vehicle. Two of them got down and spoke to me very kindly. They asked about a person in our village. While they were speaking with me, they tried to catch me. So I shouted at the top of my voice but no one came there. They covered my face with a piece of black cloth. I can remember only that. I was unconscious. Suddenly, I heard my mother's voice. She was calling me to wake up to go to school. Then, I realized that I have had a dream.
