Test 7

Read the text and answer the questions given below it.

Martin had a terrible day yesterday. It was the day of his vacation to Spain. He left house at 10 o'clock in the morning and caught a taxi to the airport.

Martin went to the check- in with his luggage. When the man who worked for the airline asked for his passport, Martin became very upset. Where was his passport? Martin realized that he didn't have his passport with him. What a disaster!

He jumped into a taxi and told the driver to take him home. The driver drove quickly and Martin arrived back at his house in twenty minutes. He ran into the house and went into his bedroom. He found his passport on the bedside table. He left the house again. But the taxi wasn't there! Where was the taxi?

Martin jumped up and down angrily." I don't believe it. The taxi left" he yelled. He ran down the street and looked for another taxi.

After a few minutes, Martin found another taxi and told the driver to take him to the airport as quickly as possible. The traffic on the road was very bad. Unfortunately, Martin's taxi arrived at the airport late. His plane left for Spain at 11. 30 and Martin missed it. He was very sad and went to speak to the airline. They promised to get him a seat on an evening flight.

Read the following text and complete the tasks given below.

(8 marks)

- ① On the eve of World War II in September 1939, children were evacuated from England's cities, particularly London, due to the waves of Nazi bombs that were soon to fall on the city during the London Blitz. Willie Beech is evacuated to a small village, Little Weirwold, in the English countryside, where the alien sights and sounds terrify him, at first.
- ② Through the persistent, gentle caring of Mr. Tom, Willie learns to trust and love another human being. Tom Oakley, who understands why Willie arrived covered with bruises, without proper clothing, and terribly thin, comes to love Willie like a son.
- ③ Slowly, Willie begins to make friends at school, including his best friend, Zach. He learns that he is talented at drawing. He learns to trust that Mr. Tom and others will not hurt him. In turn, the reclusive Mr. Tom opens his heart again. After the deaths of his wife and baby son about 40 years ago from scarlet fever, he became the village recluse.
- ④ Called back to London by his mother Willie has no choice but to go, though he dreads it. Days passed. Feeling that something has gone terribly wrong as Mr. Tom does not hear from Willie, Mr. Tom gets on the train to London in search of him. Mr. Tom dreads the city, having never travelled outside the area containing his village, but his love for Willie encourages him to overcome his fears. He convinces a policeman to break down the locked door to Willie's mother's place. They find a horrible stench: Willie locked into the closet.
- ⑤ Mr. Tom returns to Little Weirwold with Willie where his life starts to prosper.
